Pathology in dermatology

Dra. Victoria Alegría.
Fundación Jiménez Díaz, Madrid
Dermatology trainee world cup

• 20 presentations

  1. Erdheim-Chester disease associated with a novel FLT3-MEF2C fusion and macular cutaneous lesions. (Dr. Kabeer Shah)

  2. Function of toll-like receptors in psoriasis pathogenesis (Dra. Liudmyla Naumova)
Structure

• Posters
• Self-assessment sessions
• Oral abstract presentations
• Dermatopathology trainee world cup
• Courses
Courses

• 4 Courses
  1. What’s new and practical
  2. Update in adnexal neoplasm
  3. Update in lymphoproliferative disorders
  4. Systemic diseases under the microscope
Courses

- What is new and practical
  1. Ex vivo dermoscopy with derm dotting: a new method for lesion specific and targeted cutting
  2. Machine learning and digital analytics in dermatopathology
  3. What can Virtual and Augmented Reality add to dermatopathology and why should you care
Courses

• Update in adnexal neoplasm
Cutaneous Adnexal Neoplasms

Just Published

Luis Requena
Omar Sangüeza

Springer
Courses

- Update in lymphoproliferative disorders
  1. Jinah Kim: Mycosis fungoides and Sézary syndrome—an update
  2. Werner Kempf: Cutaneous B-cell lymphomas
  3. Christina Mitteldorf: Cutaneous pseudolymphomas 2018
  4. Alejandro Gru: Secondary cutaneous involvement in systemic lymphomas
  5. Joan Guitart: Immunosuppression-related cutaneous lymphomas
Courses

• Systemic diseases under the microscope

1. Anjela Galan: Lupus erythematosus: what lies beneath
2. Margot Peters: Panniculitis: Systemic or localized (sub)cutaneous disease?
3. Franco Rongioletti: Skin signs of endocrine and metabolic disorders under the microscope
4. Almut Böer-Auer: “Warning light: patterns and clues that put on the Alert”
5. Jeffrey North: Inpatient Dermatopathology: instructive cases from hospital ward
6. Dieter Metze: Pruritus under the microscope
“IN THIS RING, WOMEN WARRIORS MATCH”